

WELSH MASTERS ATHLETICS ASSOCIATION

Key points from January 2018 Committee meeting

It was agreed to meet the initial room deposits for the Cross-country International accommodation (which would be repaid in due course). WMAA would have no further responsibility other than the initial deposit.

There should be a review of membership subscriptions before the next AGM

The lack of members' support in terms of volunteers and officials generally was discussed. Sue Hooper agreed to issue a call for assistance.

Rob Hooper was investigating 2018 track Championships options

Mel James was asked to get Nigel Jones' offer for financial support for the Cross Country International in writing.

It was agreed Mel James needed a backup/understudy for the Cross Country International.

Athletes and officials attending the indoor Inter-Area match to have the same expenses support as last year.

Mel James reported that GDPR from 25th May means a minimum check requirement for all who have access to the members' database. BMAF to issue further guidance.

Mel James to attend next BMAF executive meeting on 11th Feb

Sue Hooper has achieved her level 4 assistant starter.

Date of next meeting proposed as 28th February (probably Sandmartin at 6:30)
