

Welsh Masters Athletics Limited Website Privacy Policy September 2020

General Data Protection Regulation

What type of Information is collected?

We collect and receive information you provide or from other sources, such as Power of 10 and event results managers. This includes your performance data, and relevant information to your performances.

How do we collect information?

When you compete at recognised events, we can collect information from the organisers and other approved websites by searching their web sites.

Why do we collect information?

We collect information about your competitive performances at approved events to produce rankings and aid selection for representative teams.

How do we store, use, share and disclose information?

WMAL is hosted on the Wix.com platform.

'Your data may be stored through Wix.com's data storage, databases and the general Wix.com applications. They store your data on secure servers behind a firewall.'

Your data is collated by the WMAL webmaster to produce ranking reports at various times of the year. The data is limited to name and performance and is kept securely behind a firewall.

How do we communicate with site visitors?

We communicate your performance results by publishing on the WMAL website and other social media.

How do we use cookies and other tracking tools?

Click here to view which cookies are stored on your site visitors' computer.

How do visitors withdraw their consent?

If you do not want us to process your data anymore, please contact us via email. [webmaster@hotmail.com]

Privacy Policy Updates

We reserve the right to modify this privacy policy at any time. Changes and clarifications will take effect immediately upon their posting on the website. If we make material changes to this policy, we will notify you here that it has been updated, so that you are aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances, if any, we use and/or disclose it.

Questions and contact.

If you would like to: access, correct, amend or delete any personal information about you, you are invited to contact us on the Contact Us form on the website.
